

UAF A&P | Rapid Response Grant-Making Programme
RESOURCING RESILIENCE GRANT APPLICATION

A. TYPE OF GRANT

Resourcing Resilience Grant

This grant is available to women and non-binary¹ human rights defenders and organisations in Asia and the Pacific who – on their own or in collaboration with others – seek to implement an initiative, including an unanticipated opportunity, that would contribute towards resourcing resilience for women's human rights and human rights activism.

B. APPLY FOR A GRANT

Apply online at www.uafanp.org; OR through email at grants@uafanp.org

C. GRANT CRITERIA

1. Women/Non-Binary Led – women/non-binary people must be the primary beneficiaries of the grant, preferably channelled via a women's rights organisation;
2. Human Rights Focus – the defender or organisation promotes the advancement of women's and LBTQI's human rights using nonviolent tactics or strategies and upholding the universality of human rights;
3. Strategic intervention – the grant requested is earmarked for an intervention that is either bold, strategic, creative or innovative in a way that expands current approaches of resourcing resilience for women's human rights and human rights activism;
4. Time-bound – the proposed initiative must be implemented within 3 months of approval of an application and completed within 6 months thereafter;
5. Supported/networked – the defender or their organisation has the support of others involved in women's human rights, sexual rights or related fields of human rights at local or national level.

We do not fund:

- Cisgender males² or Cisgender male-led organisations or networks;
- Individual requests without endorsement by an organisation, established community or established network affiliation or a UAF A&P advisor;
- Activities or projects for humanitarian crises or natural disasters;
- Activities or projects focused on development aid or charity assistance;
- Projects or activities that are part of the regular programmes of an organisation;
- Regular operating budgets and/or bridge funding (to fill a funding gap).

D. SECURE COMMUNICATION CHANNELS

UAF A&P believes that the security and privacy of our applicants and grantees are central to our rapid response grant-making programme. A part of this is making sure that we use secure and encrypted channels of communication. Below are the ONLY modes and corresponding channels of communication that we recognize:

- For emails, Protonmail <https://protonmail.com/signup>
- For messaging, Signal application <https://signal.org/>

We highly recommend that you set-up accounts on those channels and use them to communicate with us. It takes only 10 minutes to sign up. If you need help in setting up these secure accounts please email our IT Support Facilitator, Esther at esther@uafanp.org

² Cisgender Males are individuals who identify as male and who were assigned male at birth
