

UAF A&P | Rapid Response Grant-Making Programme SECURITY AND WELL-BEING GRANT APPLICATION

A. TYPE OF GRANT

SECURITY AND WELL-BEING GRANT

This grant is available to women and non-binary¹ human rights defenders and organisations in Asia and the Pacific in order to respond to their immediate or time-urgent needs for security and well-being. It is intended for a person or organisation experiencing a threat or in case of emergency, crisis or risk due to their defence of women's rights and human rights. It is also available for time-urgent needs for well-being such as psycho-social counselling, treatment for trauma, or medical assistance.

B. APPLY FOR A GRANT

Apply online at www.uafanp.org OR through email at grants@uafanp.org

C. GRANT CRITERIA

1. Women or Non-Binary Led – women or non-binary¹ human rights defenders must be the primary beneficiaries of the grant, preferably channelled via a women's rights organisation;
2. Human Rights Focus – the defender or organisation promotes the advancement of women's and/or LBTQI's human rights using nonviolent tactics or strategies and upholding the universality of human rights;
3. Unanticipated and/or Time Urgent – the specific event or situation being responded to is an emergency or crisis where the defender or their organisation is at risk;
4. Support for Security and Well-being – the grant requested must be earmarked for security measures (e.g., legal assistance, relocation or evacuation, risk assessment and training, security equipment); and/or for well-being needs (e.g., psychological counselling, trauma treatment, medical assistance) of the defender or their organisation;
5. During or Immediately After Crisis – the grant requested must be intended to support the security and wellbeing of the defender or their organisation during the crisis, or immediately thereafter;
6. Supported or Networked – the defender or the organisation has the support of others involved in women's human rights, sexual rights or related fields of human rights at local or national level.

We do not fund:

- Cisgender males² or Cisgender male-led organisations or network;
- Individual requests without endorsement by an organisation, established community or established network affiliation or a UAF A&P advisor;
- Activities or projects for humanitarian crises or natural disasters;
- Activities or projects focused on development aid or charity assistance;
- Projects or activities that are part of the regular programmes of an organisation;
- Regular operating budgets and/or bridge funding (to fill a funding gap).

D. SECURE COMMUNICATION CHANNELS

UAF A&P believes that the security and privacy of our applicants and grantees are central to our rapid response grant-making programme. A part of this is making sure that we use secure and encrypted channels of communication. Below are the only modes and corresponding channels of communication that we recognize:

- For emails, ProtonMail <https://protonmail.com/signup>
- For messaging, Signal application <https://signal.org>

We highly recommend that you set-up accounts on those channels and use them to communicate with us. It takes only 10 minutes to sign up. If you need help in setting up these secure accounts, please email our IT Support Facilitator, Esther at esther@uafanp.org

² Cisgender Males are individuals who identify as male and who were assigned male at birth
